

Martha & Les Nixon's 80th Birthdays - Jan. 17th, 2012

To friends at our 80th birthday bash ... and some unable to make it and wished you could ... Thank You

We are truly grateful you found the time to come, or sent your greetings; it's people like you who make up our family and ministry. You are in our network, and we in yours. Here's an short update of the Jan. 17th week.

George Coward Gospel trio provided delightful music.

Dinner and Gospel Concert

Family singing on the bus

David, Jonathan and Daniel cooked up wonderful surprises after the Family Dinner. More friends came in for the concert. Around a hundred for the evening.

First time the clan been at the same place all together since the '70's. Grandchildren Mike and his wife Marli, and Danielle and Matthew, and 11- y/o Caleb and 3y/o Joshua made it sizzle. Bonnie and Jo Ann ill, sent greetings; Willersdorf and Max and Harriott said nice things. Dawn Goodfellow sang like an angel.

Family toted up 24 different events in seven days, tracked down around 50 cousins and relatives, took a thousand photos, refreshed memories of Sydney, hit the high spots and made a hundred promises they'll be back. Mike and Marli's side trip to Canberra three days; not enough. Jon Beth and Joshua here another week.

Martha Beth and grandson Joshua - from Phoenix, Arizona

Katoomba's Scenic Railway, ran hundreds steps down and up the valley, Rivercat and ferry, fish and chips on Manly beach, caught up Nixon 296-years ancestry.

Chopper 500' over Olympic site, the Bridge, SOH, Cruise ships, Manly Cove; then 4-hour Bush-Bike-Bash 31km Woodford to Glenbrook back tracks, family BBQ at Springwood, cousins swim at Max's Denham Court, ran on Bondi Beach, family prayer, - and drove the 12-seater bus 596km, and flew airlines around the world to do it.

Dinner and Concert and Dave's surprise family movie were tops. Log on and see it on You Tube; it's "The Les Nixon Story".

It was all around Psa 100. Testimonials and comments focused on God's gracious blessings in Jesus Christ.
